Oakland, California 94606

Dear Mr. Keys:

I invite you to accept a "Key to Creativity" award during the City of Oakland's 150th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, May 4, 2002. You have been chosen to receive this award in recognition of your outstanding achievements in the performing arts.

I will present the awards during a special ceremony beginning at 3:00 p.m. in Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, located in front of Oakland City Hall. Television star Mark Curry will serve as master of ceremonies for the event. Invited guests include Tom Hanks, Clint Eastwood, Ted Lange III, the Pointer Sisters, Rita Moreno, John Handy, Hammer, and others.

The 150th Anniversary Celebration is open to the public free of charge and will feature a live concert by Latin Jazz legend and former Oakland resident Pete Escovedo, an historical block party, and other celebratory activities.

Jan Flemons in the City's special events unit will contact you shortly to coordinate your attendance to receive your "Key to Creativity" award at the celebration. She can be reached at (510) 238-6811.

Thank you for your contribution to Oakland's rich cultural heritage. I look forward to presenting you with this award at the City of Oakland's 150th Anniversary on Saturday, May 4, 2002.

Respectfully,

JERRY BROWN
